ACTIVITY REPORT

The Department of Political Science at Chandrakanti Ramawati Arya Mahila PG College, Gorakhpur, organized a value-added course titled 'Election Process in India and Voting Behavior'. The course aimed to provide students with an in-depth understanding of the Indian electoral system, the functioning of democratic institutions, and the factors influencing voting behavior. Over students from various disciplines participated in the course.

The course successfully enhanced students' understanding of the Indian electoral system and the complexities of voting behavior. Students gained practical knowledge through interactive activities, preparing them to critically analyze future electoral events.

The course comprised a series of lectures, interactive sessions, and group discussions spread over five weeks.

Students engaged in debates on issues such as compulsory voting and the effectiveness of Electronic Voting Machines (EVMs). A simulated election was conducted to provide practical experience of the electoral process.
