PROGRAMME - CLEANLINESS CAMPAIGN

ORGANISZD BY:-NSS

On the 15th of July 2018, the National Service Scheme (NSS) organized a vibrant and impactful Cleanliness Campaign aimed at fostering a sense of responsibility and environmental stewardship among participants. The initiative was held as part of NSS's ongoing commitment to community service and environmental sustainability.

Objective:

The primary goal of the Cleanliness Campaign was to raise awareness about the importance of maintaining a clean environment and to actively engage the community in practices that promote cleanliness and hygiene. The campaign sought to address local cleanliness issues, encourage waste segregation, and promote recycling efforts.

Activities Conducted:

Community Clean-Up Drives: Participants were divided into teams and assigned different areas within the locality to clean. Areas targeted included public parks, streets, and other community spaces that were in need of attention.

Awareness Campaign: Posters and flyers were distributed to raise awareness about the importance of cleanliness. Social media platforms were also utilized to reach a broader audience and encourage more community members to get involved.

DATE -08/09/2018 PROGRAM - LITERACY DRIVE

ORGANISED BY :-NSS

On the 8th of September 2018, the National Service Scheme (NSS) launched an impactful Literacy Drive aimed at promoting literacy and educational development in the community. This initiative was part of NSS's commitment to fostering educational opportunities and addressing the challenges of illiteracy in underserved areas.

Objective:

The primary objective of the Literacy Drive was to enhance literacy rates by providing educational support and resources to individuals, particularly in underprivileged and marginalized communities. The programme aimed to encourage learning, provide basic education, and raise awareness about the importance of literacy.

Activities Conducted:

1. Literacy Classes: Regular literacy classes were conducted for adults who had limited or no formal education. These classes focused on basic skills such as reading comprehension, writing, and arithmetic, with the goal of empowering individuals to improve their personal and professional lives.
2. Book Distribution: The NSS team distributed books, educational materials, and stationery to participants. This included textbooks, storybooks, and learning aids that would support ongoing education and encourage reading habits.
3. Awareness Campaign: Informational sessions and awareness campaigns were organized to highlight the significance of literacy and education. The campaigns aimed to motivate community members to value education and take part in learning activities.

PROGRAM – NSS Day Celebration with swacha Bharat and Swastha Bhart theme
ORGANISED BY :-NSS

On 24th September 2018, the National Service Scheme (NSS) proudly organized a vibrant and impactful NSS Day Celebration. This year's event centered around two crucial themes: Swachh Bharat and Swastha Bharat, reflecting a deep commitment to cleanliness and health.

The celebration commenced with an engaging inaugural ceremony where participants gathered to acknowledge the importance of the day. The event was marked by an inspiring speech from the chief guest, who emphasized the significance of integrating the principles of Swachh Bharat (Clean India) and Swastha Bharat (Healthy India) into daily life.

The Swachh Bharat theme was brought to life through various activities, including a large-scale cleanliness drive in the local community. Volunteers enthusiastically took to the streets, cleaning public areas, parks, and schools. They were equipped with gloves, trash bags, and a strong sense of purpose, showcasing their dedication to creating a cleaner and healthier environment. The drive was complemented by educational sessions on the importance of waste segregation, proper disposal, and the benefits of a clean living space.

Simultaneously, the Swastha Bharat theme was highlighted through a series of health-related initiatives. The event featured health camps offering free medical check-ups, consultations, and awareness sessions on preventive healthcare. Experts spoke on topics such as nutrition, hygiene, and mental well-being, aiming to educate and empower the community towards healthier living practices.

PROGRAM – Swachhata the seva on Gandhi &
Shastri Jyanti
ORGANISED BY :-NSS

On October 2, 2018, the National Service Scheme (NSS) commemorated Gandhi Jayanti and Shastri Jayanti with a meaningful event titled "Swachhata Seva". This initiative was designed to honor the legacy of Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri by promoting cleanliness and community service, reflecting the values they championed.

The day began with a solemn and reflective gathering, where participants paid tribute to the principles and ideals of Gandhi and Shastri. The program featured an opening ceremony with speeches that highlighted the relevance of their teachings in contemporary society. The focus was particularly on Gandhi's vision of a clean India and Shastri's emphasis on simplicity and service.

The central activity of the day was a large-scale cleanliness drive, a practical embodiment of the Swachh Bharat Mission. Volunteers from NSS, along with community members, took to various local areas to engage in thorough cleaning efforts. The areas targeted included public spaces, streets, parks, and school campuses. Participants equipped with gloves, trash bags, and brooms worked diligently to remove litter, clean up public facilities, and promote environmental stewardship.

In addition to the physical cleaning activities, the event also included awareness campaigns and educational sessions on the importance of maintaining cleanliness and hygiene. Volunteers distributed pamphlets and held interactive discussions with community members about waste management, recycling, and the benefits of a clean environment.

PROGRAM – BLOOD DONATION CAMP

ORGANISED BY:-NSS

On January 1, 2018, the National Service Scheme (NSS) organized a significant and life-saving event: a Blood Donation Camp. This initiative marked the beginning of the year with a powerful act of community service, underscoring the NSS's commitment to health and humanitarian causes.

The camp was held at a well-equipped local venue, which was transformed into a vibrant hub of activity. Volunteers and participants arrived early, ready to contribute to this noble cause. The atmosphere was both welcoming and purposeful, with the primary goal of collecting as many units of blood as possible to support local hospitals and patients in need.

The event kicked off with a brief orientation, where attendees were educated about the importance of blood donation, the process involved, and the impact it has on saving lives. Medical professionals from partner hospitals were on hand to ensure the safety and efficiency of the donation process. They provided detailed information about eligibility criteria, health checks, and post-donation care.

Participants were guided through the various stages of the donation process, including registration, health screening, and the actual donation. Each donor was given a warm welcome and reassured by the medical staff, ensuring a smooth and comfortable experience. After donating, participants were provided with refreshments and recovery time, and were given informational material on post-donation care.
