1. Provision of Safe and Secure Learning Environment: Ensuring a campus environment that is free from discrimination, harassment, and any form of violence.
2. Grievance Redressal Mechanism: Establishing a robust system for students to report grievances confidentially and securely, ensuring that all complaints are addressed in a timely and fair manner.
3. Confidentiality: Protecting the identity of the complainants and handling all grievances with the utmost confidentiality.
4. Awareness Programs: Conducting regular awareness programs to inform students about their rights and the available channels for grievance redressal.
5. Anti-Ragging Measures: Implementing strict anti-ragging policies in compliance with government regulations to prevent any form of ragging or harassment on campus.
6. Counseling Services: Providing counseling services to support students facing academic, personal, or psychological challenges.

Instructions to Faculty, Staff, and Students

- Faculty and Staff Responsibilities: All faculty members and staff are required to be vigilant and supportive, ensuring that any grievances reported by students are directed to the Grievance Redressal Cell immediately. You are also expected to participate in the awareness programs and guide students on how to use the grievance redressal mechanisms effectively.
- Student Responsibilities: Students are encouraged to report any grievances, concerns, or issues they may encounter, whether academic or personal. You can use the suggestion boxes located across the campus, or directly approach the Grievance Redressal Cell. Your safety and well-being are our priority, and all submissions will be handled with confidentiality and respect.
- Compliance: Adherence to these guidelines is mandatory for all members of the college community. Non-compliance or any attempt to suppress or ignore grievances will be treated as a serious violation of college policies and may result in disciplinary action.
