Academic policy-

1. Attendance and Punctuality

- Students are required to attend all classes, assemblies, and school events unless excused for valid reasons (e.g., illness, family emergency).
- Students must arrive on time for school and all classes. Late arrivals should be reported to the designated authority (e.g., homeroom teacher or school office).
- Parents/guardians must notify the school in advance if a student will be absent, providing a reason and, if necessary, supporting documentation (e.g., doctor's note).

2. Dress Code

- Students must wear the prescribed school uniform, ensuring it is clean, neat, and in good condition.
- On non-uniform days, students should dress in a manner that is respectful, modest, and suitable for the school environment.
- Certain clothing and accessories, such as those displaying offensive language or symbols, are not allowed.

3. Behavioral Expectations

- Students must show respect for teachers, staff, peers, and school property. Bullying, harassment, or any form of discrimination is strictly prohibited.
- Students should actively participate in class, follow the teacher's instructions, and refrain from disrupting the learning environment.
- Actions such as fighting, vandalism, theft, and substance abuse are strictly forbidden and will result in disciplinary action.

4. Academic Integrity

- Students are expected to complete their work independently unless collaboration is explicitly allowed. Plagiarism, cheating, or submitting false information is not tolerated.
- All assignments must be completed and submitted on time. Late submissions may result in penalties unless an extension is granted.
- Students must follow the rules and regulations during exams, including adhering to seating arrangements, not bringing unauthorized materials, and not communicating with others.

5. Use of Technology

- Students must use school technology resources, such as computers and internet access, responsibly. This includes avoiding inappropriate websites, protecting personal information, and respecting copyright laws.
- The use of mobile phones and other personal electronic devices is only permitted during designated times (e.g., breaks, lunch) and should not disrupt the educational process.
- Any form of cyber bullying or inappropriate online behavior, whether on or off-campus, is subject to disciplinary action.

6. Safety and Security

- Students must contribute to maintaining a safe school environment by following all safety procedures, such as fire drills and lockdown protocols.
- Weapons, illegal substances, and other dangerous items are strictly banned from school premises.
- :Students are encouraged to report any safety concerns or suspicious activities to a teacher or school administrator immediately.

7. Extracurricular Activities

- Students involved in extracurricular activities (e.g., sports teams, clubs) must adhere to the specific rules and expectations of those activities, including attendance, behavior, and teamwork.
- Participation in extracurricular activities may be contingent upon maintaining a certain level of academic performance.

8. Disciplinary Actions

- Violations of school policies may result in disciplinary actions, which can include warnings, detentions, suspension, or expulsion, depending on the severity of the offense.
- Where possible, the school may implement restorative practices to address misconduct, focusing on repairing harm and restoring relationships.
- Students and parents/guardians have the right to appeal disciplinary decisions through a formal process outlined by the school.

9. Parental Involvement

- The school will maintain open communication with parents/guardians regarding student progress, behavior, and any concerns.
- Parents/guardians are expected to support the school's policies and cooperate in addressing any issues that arise.

10. General Conduct

- 1 Students must take care of school property, including textbooks, equipment, and facilities. Any damage caused intentionally will result in consequences and may require restitution.

- 2 Students are expected to use appropriate language and exhibit behavior that reflects the values of the school.
- 3 Students are expected to uphold the school's standards of conduct even when off-campus, particularly when representing the school in any capacity.

11. Review and Updates

- The policy will be reviewed regularly to ensure it remains relevant and effective in maintaining a positive school environment.
- Feedback from students and parents/guardians may be sought periodically to help refine and improve the policy.
