15th DAYS CERTIFICATE COURSE ON DRAFTING, CUTTING AND STITCHING OF GARMENTS

27/4/2022 - 11/5/2022

This 15-day certificate course, organized by the Home Science Department in collaboration with the IQAC of the college, provided a comprehensive introduction to the techniques of drafting, cutting, and stitching garments. The course was designed to equip participants with essential skills for garment construction, from initial design to final product.

By the end of the course, participants gained practical skills in the entire process of garment construction, from drafting patterns to stitching finished garments. The course combined theoretical knowledge with extensive hands-on practice, preparing attendees for both personal garment creation and potential professional opportunities in fashion and tailoring.
