Department of Sociology

Programme Outcome

The objective of the programmes in sociology is to develop among the learners on objective understanding about the society. Through the courses an attempt has been made to make the learners aware about the social problems andtry to find out its solution.

1. The objective of the programmes is to introduce the students about the social historical conditions of the emergency and growth of the sociology.
2. To sensitize the learners about the Indian society and it`s specific features.
3. To aware the learners about the social processes issues and problems faced bythe society.

po

1. The learner become sensitized about the society especially about gender, caste neutrality and human values.
2. Sociological knowledge is helpful in comprehending the society and it`s dynamics .It is a vehicle of social reform and social change.

प्राचार्या
चन्द्रकान्ति रमावती देवी आर्य महिला
पी० जी० कालेज,गोरखपुर